

A Concurrent Resolution memorializing Congress, the United States Department of Justice and the United States Department of Agriculture to take certain actions relating to large corporations; and directing distribution.