

An Act relating to public health and safety; creating the "Nine-One-One Wireless Emergency Number Act"; providing short title; stating purpose; providing definitions; requiring certain annual audits of certain public agencies; permitting certain audits of certain public agencies by State Auditor and Inspector; providing for certain filing of audits; declaring proprietary information confidential; requiring quarterly meetings of certain public bodies; subjecting certain public bodies to Oklahoma Open Records Act and Oklahoma Open Meeting Act; amending 63 O.S. 1991, Sections 2816, 2817, 2818 and 2819, which relate to nine-one-one emergency telephone service; permitting governing body of certain public agency to issue and sell bonds for certain purposes; absolving certain public agency employees and certain service providers of certain liabilities, claims, damages, or losses, and making exception thereto; permitting certain contracts; prohibiting certain use of the number nine-one-one; providing penalty and assessment; requiring provision of certain services to certain telephone subscribers; requiring certain service companies provide certain information to certain public bodies; permitting release of certain confidential information in aggregate form for certain purpose; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.