

An Act relating to schools; stating legislative intent to address school violence through prevention; specifying preventative methods; allowing school districts to pursue certain preventative methods; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.