

An Act relating to schools; providing for an opportunity for an individual advisement session for certain students; listing participants in the session; stating purpose of the session; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.