

An Act relating to corporations; exempting certain businesses from certain provisions of law relating to corporations engaged in farming or ranching operations; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.