

An Act relating to consumer information; requiring country of origin labeling on fresh fruits and vegetables and frozen meats; providing methods for compliance; making Department of Agriculture responsible for enforcement; providing for administrative penalties; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.