

An Act relating to consumer credit; requiring certain statement to be provided before execution of contract or agreement for consumer credit sale or before receipt of consideration by seller; requiring statement to be kept on file for certain period; specifying contents of statement; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.