

An Act relating to insurance; requiring completion of approved education within two years before application for licensure as title insurance agent; providing for approval of courses and providers; authorizing adoption of rules; requiring payment of certain fees and providing an exception; authorizing acceptance or rejection of certain courses and providers; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.