

An Act relating to state government; defining terms; setting parameters for installation of burglar bars on certain windows and doors; providing for promulgation of rules; requiring certain windows and doors have safety release mechanisms; requiring the State Fire Marshal to set certain standards for installation of burglar bars; providing for distribution of certain materials to fire departments and municipalities; setting penalty; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.