

STATE OF OKLAHOMA

1st Session of the 47th Legislature (1999)

SENATE BILL NO. _____

By: Herbert of the Senate and Paulk of the House

AS INTRODUCED

An Act relating to counties; amending 19 O.S. 1991, Section 180.65, as last amended by Section 3, Chapter 195, O.S.L. 1998 and Section 13, Chapter 334, O.S.L. 1993, as amended by Section 7, Chapter 195, O.S.L. 1998 (19 O.S. Supp. 1998, Sections 180.65 and 180.81), which relate to county deputy salaries; providing exception; allowing percentage increase in certain county deputy salaries; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 273. AMENDATORY 19 O.S. 1991, Section 180.65, as last amended by Section 3, Chapter 195, O.S.L. 1998 (19 O.S. Supp. 1998, Section 180.65), is amended to read as follows:

Section 180.65 A. The officers named in paragraph 1 of Section 180.61 of this title shall have such number of regular or technical deputies, assistants, investigators, evidence persons, aides, stenographers or reporters, technicians, undersheriffs, jailers, matrons, handwriting and fingerprint experts, probation officers, juvenile officers, bailiffs, or other help, whatever title the principal officer may ascribe to the duties or functions to be performed as authorized by law and clearly related to the proper accomplishment of lawful functions, whether on whole or part-time basis, at such rates of salary or pay, subject to the provisions of this section as hereinafter set forth, as the principal officer may propose and establish the need of and which the county excise board may approve, for the adequate accomplishment of the functions of the office and the performance of the duties imposed thereon by law, with due weight being given to employment on whole or part-time basis. However, no such employments shall exceed the amount of lawful funds appropriated for such purpose.

B. Each principal officer named in paragraph 1 of Section 180.61 of this title, except judges, shall designate of record in the office of the county clerk a first or chief deputy or assistant who shall be chargeable with all the duties of such principal officer, while subject to the direction of the same. The first or chief deputy or assistant shall carry on the duties of the office during the absence of the principal officer or, in the event of the death, removal or resignation of said principal officer, until a successor shall have qualified. During periods of vacancy of the principal office, resulting from the death, removal or resignation of the principal officer, the chief deputy or assistant shall be bonded in the same manner and in the same sum as required for the principal officer.

C. The first or chief deputy or assistant to any officer, as authorized by subsection B of this section, shall receive a salary not to exceed ninety percent (90%) of the salary of the principal officer. If the principal officer has more than one deputy or assistant, except as otherwise provided for in this section, that person or those persons whom the principal officer may designate as "second deputy" or "second assistant" shall receive a salary not to exceed eighty percent (80%) of the salary of the principal officer. The salaries set forth in this subsection within the limitations shall be such amounts as the principal officer may propose and establish the need for and which the county excise board may approve within salary and staffing requirements as may be prescribed by law. The numerical rank of any deputy or assistant to be effective must be by designation of the principal officer by the signature of the principal officer and filed with the county clerk. The numerical rank of any deputy or assistant shall be within the sole discretion of the principal officer.

D. No other deputy, aide, assistant or other person named in subsection A of this section may be paid at a salary rate in excess of eighty percent (80%) of the salary of the principal officer and, subject to this limitation, the salary or rate of pay of such subordinate shall be determined by the principal officer and the county excise board based upon responsibility, risks, skills, training, and experience required for such position and afforded by the subordinate. However, the eighty percent (80%) limitation shall not apply to county officers employing only two deputies or technical help on a part-time contract or wage basis within the amount of lawful appropriations for such purposes, by and with the consent and approval of the county commissioners. The criteria stated in this subsection shall not apply to reserve force deputy sheriffs.

E. The salary paid to such deputies, assistants, or other persons shall not exceed ninety percent (90%) or eighty percent (80%), respectively, of the total salary paid to such principal officers.

F. The board of county commissioners shall continue to have the authority to recommend the total amount of funds that can be used for the combined salaries in each of the county offices covered by this act. However, the approval of the funding for such offices shall continue to be the responsibility of the county excise board. County officers shall have no authority to make salary commitments beyond the amount of the funding so provided.

G. The county excise board shall meet with each of the principal officers of the county in budget planning conference or conferences, before July 1 of each year, to discuss personnel needs for each office for the succeeding fiscal year. The excise board shall provide the principal officers a tentative estimate of anticipated revenues for the next fiscal year prior to the budget planning conferences.

H. In any county with a population in excess of four hundred fifty thousand (450,000), the sheriff may have up to four deputies, including his or her first or chief deputy, that may have a salary not to exceed ninety percent (90%) of the sheriff's salary. The undersheriff in such counties may have a salary not to exceed ninety-five percent (95%) of the sheriff's salary.

SECTION 1. AMENDATORY Section 13, Chapter 334, O.S.L. 1993, as amended by Section 7, Chapter 195, O.S.L. 1998 (19 O.S. Supp. 1998, Section 180.81), is amended to read as follows:

Section 180.81 A. The officers named in paragraph 1 of Section 180.73 of this title shall have such number of regular or technical deputies, assistants, investigators, evidence persons, aides, stenographers or reporters, technicians, undersheriffs, jailers, matrons, handwriting and fingerprint experts, probation officers, juvenile officers, bailiffs, or other help, whatever title the principal officer may ascribe to the duties or functions to be performed as authorized by law and clearly related to the proper accomplishment of lawful functions, whether on whole or part-time basis, at such rates of salary or pay, subject to the provisions of this section as hereinafter set forth, as the principal officer may propose and establish the need of and which the county excise board may approve, for the adequate accomplishment of the functions of the office and the performance of the duties imposed thereon by law, with due weight being given to employment on whole or part-time basis. However, no such employments shall exceed the amount of lawful funds appropriated for such purpose.

B. Each principal officer named in paragraph 1 of Section 180.73 of this title, except judges, shall designate of record in the office of the county clerk a first or chief deputy or assistant who shall be chargeable with all the duties of such principal officer, while subject to the direction of the same. The first or chief deputy or assistant shall carry on the duties of the office during the absence of the principal officer or, in the event of the death, removal or resignation of said principal officer, until a successor shall have qualified. During periods of vacancy of the principal office, resulting from the death, removal or resignation of the principal officer, the chief deputy or assistant shall be bonded in the same manner and in the same sum as required for the principal officer.

C. The first or chief deputy or assistant to any officer, as authorized by subsection B of this section, shall receive a salary not to exceed ninety percent (90%) of the salary of the principal officer. If the principal officer has more than one deputy or assistant, except as otherwise provided for in this section, that person or those persons whom the principal officer may designate as "second deputy" or "second assistant" shall receive a salary not to exceed eighty percent (80%) of the salary of the principal officer. The salaries set forth in this subsection within the limitations shall be such amounts as the principal officer may propose and establish the need for and which the county excise board may approve within salary and staffing requirements as may be prescribed by law. The numerical rank of any deputy or assistant to be effective must be by designation of the principal officer by the signature of the principal officer and filed with the county clerk. The numerical rank of any deputy or assistant shall be within the sole discretion of the principal officer.

D. No other deputy, aide, assistant or other person named in subsection A of this section may be paid at a salary rate in excess of eighty percent (80%) of the salary of the principal officer and, subject to this limitation, the salary or rate of pay of such subordinate shall be determined by the principal officer and the county excise board based upon responsibility, risks, skills, training, and experience required for such position and afforded by the subordinate. However, the eighty percent (80%) limitation shall not apply to county officers employing only two deputies or technical help on a part-time contract or wage basis within the amount of lawful appropriations for such purposes, by and with the consent and approval of the county commissioners. The criteria stated in this subsection shall not apply to reserve force deputy sheriffs.

E. The salary paid to such deputies, assistants, or other persons shall not exceed ninety percent (90%) or eighty percent (80%), respectively, of the total salary paid to such principal officers.

F. The board of county commissioners shall continue to have the authority to recommend the total amount of funds that can be used for the combined salaries in each of the county offices covered by this act. However, the approval of the funding for such offices shall continue to be the responsibility of the county excise board. County officers shall have no authority to make salary commitments beyond the amount of the funding so provided.

G. The county excise board shall meet with each of the principal officers of the county in budget planning conference or conferences, before July 1 of each year, to discuss personnel needs for each office for the succeeding fiscal year. The excise board shall provide the principal officers a tentative estimate of anticipated revenues for the next fiscal year prior to the budget planning conferences.

H. In any county with a population in excess of three hundred fifty thousand (350,000), the safety director or coordinator appointed pursuant to Section 403 of Title 40 of the Oklahoma Statutes shall receive a salary not to exceed the salary of the first or chief deputy or assistant to any officer as set forth in subsection C of this section.

I. In any county with a population in excess of four hundred fifty thousand (450,000), the sheriff may have up to four deputies, including his or her first or chief deputy, that may have a salary not to exceed ninety percent (90%) of the sheriff's salary. The undersheriff in such counties may have a salary not to exceed ninety-five percent (95%) of the sheriff's salary.

SECTION 2. This act shall become effective July 1, 1999.

SECTION 3. It being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency is hereby declared to exist, by reason whereof this act shall take effect and be in full force from and after its passage and approval.
