Failure of an insurer to provide a policyholder or assignee of record with such notification shall constitute prima facie evidence that the claim will be paid in accordance with the terms of the policy.

B. 1. If a claim is not paid within sixty (60) days after receipt of proof of loss, the insurer shall pay interest which shall be the same rate of interest as the average United States Treasury Bill rate of the preceding calendar year as certified to the Insurance Commissioner by the State Treasurer on the first regular business day in January of each year, plus two (2) percentage points, which shall accrue from the sixty-first day after receipt of proof of loss until the claim is paid.

2. If a claim is not paid within six (6) months after receipt of proof of loss, the insurer shall pay interest at a rate which shall be the same as the average United States Treasury Bill rate of the preceding calendar year, as certified to the Insurance Commissioner by the State Treasurer on the first regular business day in January of each year, plus four (4) percentage points.
