

Torts; making certain persons using or providing automated external defibrillator immune from civil liability in certain situations. Effective date.