

Schools; allowing boards of education to become member of organizations or associations; allowing payment of fees, dues and costs; allowing school district boards of education to provide informational material; prohibiting the release of audits before certain periods; providing procedures for indebtedness. Effective date. Emergency.