

Oil and gas; establishing responsibility for the plugging, replugging or repair of certain wells where the integrity of the well is threatened because of construction; effective date; emergency.