

Children; requiring the Department of Human Services to implement a program to provide services to specified clients at certain resource centers and to reinvest certain money into programs and services to clients with developmental disabilities; specifying services; codification; effective date.