

An act relating to public health; directing the establishment of a program to distribute certain pharmaceuticals to medically indigent persons; codification; effective date.