“SECTION 2. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1991 of Title 21, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. It shall be unlawful for any person to view, or attempt to view, for any unlawful, illegal or illegitimate purpose, or in a lewd or lascivious manner, or for the purpose of sexual interest, another person without the knowledge or consent of that other person when the person being viewed is in a place where that person has a right to and a reasonable expectation of privacy from being viewed by any person not authorized or expected by the person being viewed.

B. Any person violating this section toward a minor child under the age of eighteen (18) or toward a student enrolled and attending grades kindergarten through twelve, regardless of age, while the student is participating in any activity sponsored or approved by a school, shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not less than one (1) year nor more than twenty (20) years. In all other cases, any person violating this section shall be deemed guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than five (5) years.

C. As used in this section, "view another person" means to observe, look at, or look upon another person, or to photograph, videotape, or otherwise record by any media or equipment capable of reproducing a visual image of another person, whether the equipment is attended, unattended, or remotely operated."
