TO
ENGROSSED HOUSE
BILL NO. 1090

By: Bengé of the House

and

Smith of the Senate

An Act relating to state government; requiring state agencies to reciprocate bidding preferences given by other states or nations; requiring the annual preparation of certain schedule; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.

AMENDMENT NO. 1. Page 1, strike the title, enacting clause and entire bill and insert

"An Act relating to state government; requiring state agencies to reciprocate bidding preferences given by other states or nations; requiring the annual preparation of certain schedule; amending Section 1, Chapter 220, O.S.L. 1995 (74 O.S. Supp. 2000, Section 317.1), which relates to the State Fire Marshal Commission; clarifying requirement for exemption; providing condition for certain bed and breakfast establishments to receive an exemption; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 85.17A of Title 74, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

State agencies shall not discriminate against bidders from states or nations outside Oklahoma, except as provided by this section. State agencies shall reciprocate the bidding preference given by other states or nations to bidders domiciled in their jurisdictions for acquisitions pursuant to the Oklahoma Central Purchasing Act. The State Purchasing Director shall annually prepare and distribute to certified procurement officers a schedule providing which states give bidders in their states a preference and the extent of the preference. This schedule shall be used by state agencies in evaluating bids.

SECTION 2. AMENDATORY Section 1, Chapter 220, O.S.L. 1995 (74 O.S. Supp. 2000, Section 317.1), is amended to read as follows:

Section 317.1 A. The following bed and breakfast establishments shall be exempt from standards adopted by the State Fire Marshal Commission, including but not limited to standards published by the National Fire Protection Association, the Building Officials and Code Administrators (BOCA) National Building Code and the Life Safety Code, as it relates to sprinkler system and exit requirements only:

1. Bed and breakfast establishments which are open for business prior to ~~the effective date of this act~~ July 1, 1995; and

2. Bed and breakfast establishments which open for business on or after ~~the effective date of this act~~ July 1, 1995, and which provide sleeping accommodations of four rooms or less in each separate structure.

If such bed and breakfast establishment has retail space, then, in order to receive the exemption pursuant to this subsection, such retail space shall not exceed four hundred (400) square feet in each separate structure.

B. Municipalities may enact ordinances for bed and breakfast establishments which are the same as or different from the rules adopted by the State Fire Marshal Commission relating to sprinkler system and exit requirements only.

C. For purposes of this section, "bed and breakfast establishment" means a private house where sleeping accommodations are available for transient guests for pay, maximum guest occupancy in general not to exceed the total of two guests per room, and where breakfast only is included in the rent.

SECTION 3. This act shall become effective July 1, 2001.

SECTION 4. It being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency is hereby declared to exist, by reason whereof this act shall take effect and be in full force from and after its passage and approval."
