E. The Attorney General may, for good cause shown, move the court for extensions of the time during which the complaint remains under seal pursuant to subsection B of this section. The motion may be supported by affidavits or other submissions in camera.

F. Before the expiration of the 60-day period or any extensions obtained under subsection E of this section, the Attorney General shall do either of the following:

1. Notify the court that it intends to proceed with the action, in which case the action shall be conducted by the Attorney General and the seal shall be lifted; or

2. Notify the court that it declines to proceed with the action, in which case the seal shall be lifted and the qui tam plaintiff shall have the right to conduct the action.

G. H. Within forty-five (45) days after the Attorney General forwards the complaint and written disclosure pursuant to subsection G of this section, the prosecuting authority may elect to intervene and proceed with the action.

I. The prosecuting authority may, for good cause shown, move for extensions of the time during which the complaint remains under seal. The motion may be supported by affidavits or other submissions in camera.

J. Before the expiration of the 45-day period or any extensions obtained pursuant to subsection I of this section, the prosecuting authority shall do either of the following:

1. Notify the court that it intends to proceed with the action, in which case the action shall be conducted by the prosecuting authority and the seal shall be lifted; or

2. Notify the court that it declines to proceed with the action, in which case the seal shall be lifted and the qui tam plaintiff shall have the right to conduct the action.

K. Within fifteen (15) days after receiving a complaint alleging violations that involve both state and political subdivision funds, the Attorney General shall forward copies of the complaint and written disclosure to the appropriate prosecuting authority, and shall coordinate its review and investigation with those of the prosecuting authority.

L. Within sixty (60) days after receiving a complaint and written disclosure of material evidence and information alleging violations that involve both state and political subdivision funds, the Attorney General or the prosecuting authority, or both, may elect to intervene and proceed with the action.

M. The Attorney General or the prosecuting authority, or both, may, for good cause shown, move the court for extensions of the time during which the complaint remains under seal under subsection B of this section. The motion may be supported by affidavits or other submissions in camera.

N. Before the expiration of the 60-day period or any extensions obtained under subsection M of this section, the Attorney General shall do one of the following:

1. Notify the court that it intends to proceed with the action, in which case the action shall be conducted by the Attorney General and the seal shall be lifted;

2. Notify the court that it declines to proceed with the action but that the prosecuting authority of the political subdivision involved intends to proceed with the action, in which case the seal shall be lifted and the action shall be conducted by the prosecuting authority; or

3. Notify the court that both it and the prosecuting authority decline to proceed with the action, in which case the seal shall be lifted and the qui tam plaintiff shall have the right to conduct the action.

O. If the Attorney General proceeds with the action pursuant to paragraph 1 of subsection N of this section, the prosecuting authority of the political subdivision shall be permitted to intervene in the action within sixty (60) days after the Attorney General notifies the court of its intentions. The court may authorize intervention thereafter upon a showing that all the requirements of Section 2024 of Title 12 of the Oklahoma Statutes have been met.

P. The defendant shall not be required to respond to any complaint filed under this section until twenty (20) days after the complaint is unsealed and served upon the defendant pursuant to Section 2004 of Title 12 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

Q. When a person brings an action under subsection B of this section and said action is still pending, no other person, including the state or political subdivision, may bring a related action based on the facts underlying the pending action. In the event that a person, the state or a political subdivision, file a related action based on the facts underlying the pending action, the court in the subsequent action shall dismiss said action without prejudice upon disclosure of the prior pending action.

SECTION 7. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 375.7 of Title 62, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. No court shall have jurisdiction over an action brought pursuant to Section 6 of this act against a member of the Oklahoma State Senate or the Oklahoma House of Representatives, a member of the state judiciary, an elected official in the executive branch of the state, or a member of the governing body of any political subdivision if the action is based on evidence or information known to the state or political subdivision when the action was brought.

B. A person may not bring an action pursuant to Section 6 of this act that is based upon allegations or transactions that are the subject of a pending civil suit or an administrative civil money penalty proceeding in which the state or political subdivision is already a party.

C. No court shall have jurisdiction over an action brought pursuant to Section 6 of this act based upon information discovered by a present or former employee of the state or a political subdivision during the course of his or her employment unless that employee first, in good faith, exhausted existing internal procedures for reporting and seeking recovery of the falsely claimed sums through official channels and unless the state or political subdivision failed to act on the information provided within a reasonable period of time.

SECTION 8. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 375.8 of Title 62, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. If the state or political subdivision proceeds with the action, it shall have the primary responsibility for prosecuting the action. The qui tam plaintiff shall have the right to continue as a full party to the action.

B. Notwithstanding subsection Q of Section 6 of this act, the state or political subdivision may seek to dismiss the action for good cause, notwithstanding the objections of the qui tam plaintiff, if the qui tam plaintiff has been notified by the state or political subdivision of the filing of the motion and the court has provided the qui tam plaintiff with an opportunity to oppose the motion and present evidence at a hearing. The burden to establish good cause shall be borne by the state or political subdivision.

C. The state or political subdivision may settle the action with the defendant, notwithstanding the objections of the qui tam plaintiff if the court determines, after a hearing providing the qui tam plaintiff an opportunity to present evidence, that the proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable under all of the circumstances.

SECTION 9. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 375.9 of Title 62, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. If the state or political subdivision elects not to proceed, the qui tam plaintiff shall have the same right to conduct the action as the Attorney General or prosecuting authority would have had if it had chosen to proceed under Section 6 of this act. If the state or political subdivision so requests, and at its expense, the state or political subdivision shall be served with copies of all pleadings filed in the action and supplied with copies of all deposition transcripts.

B. Upon timely application, the court shall permit the state or political subdivision to intervene in an action with which it had initially declined to proceed if the interest of the state or political subdivision in recovery of the property or funds involved is not being adequately represented by the qui tam plaintiff.

C. If the state or political subdivision is allowed to intervene under subsection B of this section, the qui tam plaintiff shall retain principal responsibility for the action and the recovery of the parties shall be determined as if the state or political subdivision had elected not to proceed.

SECTION 10. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 375.10 of Title 62, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. If the Attorney General initiates an action pursuant to Section 4 of this act or assumes control of an action initiated by a prosecuting authority pursuant to paragraph 1 of subsection C of Section 5 of this act, the Office of the Attorney General shall receive a fixed thirty-five percent (35%) of the proceeds of the action or settlement of the claim, which shall be used to support its ongoing investigation and prosecution of false claims.

B. If a prosecuting authority initiates and conducts an action pursuant to Section 5 of this act, the office of the prosecuting authority shall receive a fixed thirty-five percent (35%) of the proceeds of the action or settlement of the claim, which shall be used to support its ongoing investigation and prosecution of false claims.

C. If a prosecuting authority intervenes in an action initiated by the Attorney General pursuant to subsection C of Section 4 of this act or remains a party to an action assumed by the Attorney General pursuant to paragraph 1 of subsection C of Section 5 of this act, the court may award the office of the prosecuting authority a portion of the Attorney General's fixed thirty-five percent (35%) of the recovery under subsection A of this section, taking into account the prosecuting authority's role in investigating and conducting the action.

D. If the state or political subdivision proceeds with an action brought by a qui tam plaintiff under Section 6 of this act, the qui tam plaintiff shall, subject to subsections F and G of this subsection, receive at least fifteen percent (15%) but not more than thirty-five percent (35%) of the proceeds of the action or settlement of the claim, depending upon the extent to which the qui tam plaintiff substantially contributed to the prosecution of the action. When it conducts the action filed by a qui tam plaintiff, the Attorney General's office or the office of the prosecuting authority of the political subdivision shall receive at least fifteen percent (15%), but not more than thirty-five percent (35%) of the proceeds of the action or settlement of the claim, which shall be used to support its ongoing investigation and prosecution of false claims made against the state or political subdivision. When both the Attorney General and a prosecuting authority are involved in a qui tam action pursuant to this act, the court at its discretion may award the prosecuting authority a portion of the Attorney General's percent of the recovery, taking into account the prosecuting authority's contribution to investigating and conducting the action. In no event shall the total percentage of the proceeds of the action or settlement of the claim awarded to the qui tam plaintiff, the Attorney General and the prosecuting authority be greater than fifty percent (50%) of the total proceeds of the action or settlement of the claim.

E. If the state or political subdivision does not proceed with an action under Section 6 of this act, the qui tam plaintiff shall, subject to subsections F and G of this section, receive an amount that the court decides is reasonable for collecting the civil penalty and damages on behalf of the government. The amount shall not be less than thirty-five percent (35%) and not more than fifty percent (50%) of the proceeds of the action or settlement and shall be paid out of these proceeds.

F. If the action is one provided for under subsection C of Section 7 of this act, the present or former employee of the state or political subdivision is not entitled to any minimum guaranteed recovery from the proceeds. The court, however, may award the qui tam plaintiff those sums from the proceeds as it considers appropriate, but in no case more than thirty-five percent (35%) of the proceeds if the state or political subdivision goes forth with the action or fifty percent (50%) if the state or political subdivision declines to go forth, taking into account the significance of the information, the role of the qui tam plaintiff in advancing the case to litigation, and the scope of, and response to, the employee's attempts to report and gain recovery of the falsely claimed funds through official channels.

G. If the action is one that the court finds to be based primarily on information from a present or former employee who actively participated in the fraudulent activity, the employee is not entitled to any minimum guaranteed recovery from the proceeds. The court, however, may award the qui tam plaintiff any sums from the proceeds that it considers appropriate, but in no case more than thirty-five percent (35%) of the proceeds if the state or political subdivision goes forth with the action or fifty percent (50%) if the state or political subdivision declines to go forth, taking into account the significance of the information, the role of the qui tam plaintiff in advancing the case to litigation, the scope of the present or past employee's involvement in the fraudulent activity, the employee's attempts to avoid or resist the activity, and all other circumstances surrounding the activity.

H. The portion of the recovery not distributed pursuant to subsections A through G of this section, inclusive, shall revert to the state if the underlying false claims involved state funds exclusively and to the political subdivision if the underlying false claims involved political subdivision funds exclusively. If the violation involved both state and political subdivision funds, the court shall make an apportionment between the state and political subdivision based on their relative share of the funds falsely claimed.

I. For purposes of this section, "proceeds" include civil penalties as well as double or treble damages as provided in Section 3 of this act.

J. If the state, political subdivision, or the qui tam plaintiff prevails in or settles any action under Section 6 of this act, the qui tam plaintiff shall receive an amount for reasonable costs and expenses, including expert witness fees, that the court finds to have been necessarily incurred. The qui tam plaintiff shall also be entitled to a reasonable attorney's fee of no less than thirty-five percent (35%) and not more than fifty percent (50%) of the proceeds of the action or settlement. All expenses, costs, and fees shall be awarded against the defendant and under no circumstances shall they be the responsibility of the state or political subdivision.

K. If the state, a political subdivision, or the qui tam plaintiff proceeds with the action, the court may award to the defendant its reasonable attorney's fees and expenses against the party that proceeded with the action if the defendant prevails in the action and the court finds that the claim was clearly frivolous, clearly vexatious, or brought solely for purposes of harassment.

SECTION 11. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 375.11 of Title 62, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. The court may stay an act of discovery of the person initiating the action for a period of not more than sixty (60) days if the Attorney General or local prosecuting authority show that the act of discovery would interfere with an investigation or a prosecution of a criminal or civil matter arising out of the same facts, regardless of whether the Attorney General or local prosecuting authority proceeds with the action. This showing shall be conducted in camera.

B. The court may extend the 60-day period upon a further showing in camera that the Attorney General or local prosecuting authority has pursued the criminal or civil investigation or proceedings with reasonable diligence and any proposed discovery in the civil action will interfere with the ongoing criminal or civil investigation or proceedings.

SECTION 12. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 375.12 of Title 62, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

Upon a showing by the Attorney General or local prosecuting authority that unrestricted participation during the course of the litigation by the person initiating the action would interfere with or unduly delay the Attorney General's or local prosecuting authority's prosecution of the case, or would be repetitious, irrelevant, or for purposes of harassment, the court may, in its discretion, impose limitations on the person's participation, including the following:

1. Limiting the number of witnesses the person may call;
2. Limiting the length of the testimony of the witnesses;
3. Limiting the person's cross-examination of witnesses; or
4. Otherwise limiting the participation by the person in the litigation.

SECTION 13. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 375.13 of Title 62, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

The Oklahoma False Claims Act Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury. Proceeds from the action or settlement of the claim by the Attorney General pursuant to this act shall be deposited into this fund. Monies in this fund, upon appropriation by the Legislature, shall be used by the Attorney General to support the ongoing investigation and prosecution of false claims in furtherance of this act.

SECTION 14. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 375.14 of Title 62, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. In any action brought under Section 4, 5 or 6 of this act, the state, the political subdivision, or the qui tam plaintiff shall be required to prove all essential elements of the cause of action, including damages, by a preponderance of the evidence, unless said burden is placed upon the defendant by other statutes or applicable case law.

B. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a guilty verdict rendered in a criminal proceeding charging false statements or fraud, whether upon a verdict after trial or upon a plea of guilty or nolo contendere shall estop the defendant from denying the essential elements of the offense in any action which involves the same transaction as in the criminal proceeding and which is brought under Section 4, 5 or 6 of this act.

C. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a judgment upon a jury verdict rendered in a civil proceeding against a defendant shall estop the defendant from denying the essential elements of the jury's verdict in any action which involves the same or similar transaction as in the prior civil proceeding and which is brought under Section 4, 5 or 6 of this act.

SECTION 15. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 375.15 of Title 62, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. The provisions of this act are not exclusive, and the remedies provided for in this act shall be in addition to any other remedies provided for in any other law or available under common law.

B. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held to be unconstitutional, the remainder of the act and the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

C. This act shall be liberally construed and applied to promote the public interest.

D. This act shall apply to any circumstance described in Section 3 of this act which has not been remedied as of, or which occurs after, the effective date of this act.

SECTION 16. This act shall become effective November 1, 2002.
