An Act relating to higher education; amending 70 O.S. 1991, Sections 3423 and 3424, which relate to the Oklahoma College of Osteopathic Medicine and Surgery; establishing the official name of the college; creating the Oklahoma State University Center for Health Sciences; including certain programs; prohibiting certain construction; changing name of the College of Osteopathic Medicine; creating the Oklahoma Rural Health Policy and Research Center; providing for location of Center; stating mission of the Center; amending Section 13, Chapter 325, O.S.L. 1998 (70 O.S. Supp. 2000, Section 4673), which relates to the University of Oklahoma/Oklahoma State University Graduate Center at Tulsa; changing name of the College of Osteopathic Medicine; updating certain references; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 70 O.S. 1991, Section 3423, is amended to read as follows:

Section 3423. A. The institution located in Tulsa County and known as the Oklahoma College of Osteopathic Medicine and Surgery is hereby merged with and made an agency and an integral part of Oklahoma State University. The location of the college shall remain in Tulsa County. On and after the effective date of this act, the official name of the college shall be the Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine. The Board of Regents for the Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges shall have the supervision, management, and governmental control of the college, which shall be administered by Oklahoma State University. At least one of the two highest-ranking administrative officers of the college shall be a doctor of osteopathic medicine.

B. There is hereby created the Oklahoma State University Center for Health Sciences which shall include the programs of the Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine and may include other medical and biomedical sciences programs of Oklahoma State University.

C. Nothing in this act shall be deemed to change the mission, courses, or programs of Oklahoma State University or to alter the powers of the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education related to the approval of courses, programs, and institutional missions.

SECTION 2. AMENDATORY 70 O.S. 1991, Section 3424, is amended to read as follows:

Section 3424. A. It is the intent of the Legislature that the President of Oklahoma State University appoint members to an Advisory Council for the Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine ~~of Oklahoma State University~~, such council members to serve at the pleasure of the President. ~~Said~~ The Advisory Council shall have seven (7) members, none of whom shall be employees of the state or engaged in business with Oklahoma State University or any agency thereof by means of any contract or business transaction involving a financial consideration. The appointment of members shall be made from a list of not less than three names per member submitted by the Oklahoma Osteopathic Association.

B. It is the intent of the Legislature that ~~said~~ the Advisory Council advise the administrative officers of the college, the administrative officers of the university, and the Board of Regents for the Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges regarding the professional preparation of doctors of osteopathic medicine in the field of general practice and regarding the general development and improvement of the Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine as an agency and an integral part of Oklahoma State University.

C. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education, in determining the functions, programs of study, and standards of education of the college, continue to give emphasis to the preparation of doctors of osteopathic medicine in the field of general practice.

SECTION 3. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 3424.1 of Title 70, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

There is hereby created the Oklahoma Rural Health Policy and Research Center at the Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine. The mission of the Oklahoma Rural Health Policy and Research Center shall be to improve rural health care delivery in Oklahoma through the coordination of rural medical education, telemedicine, research, and health care policy.
