

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; defining terms; authorizing income tax credit for certain electric power consumption; specifying years for which income tax credit is available; providing for computation of income tax credit; providing for use of credit in payment of estimated tax liabilities; authorizing carryover; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.