

An Act relating to insurance; prohibiting certain agreement to commit or actions which result in restraint of or monopoly in the health benefit plan business; making certain actions an unfair and deceptive act; defining term; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.