

An Act relating to environment and natural resources; requiring septic tank or holding tank installers to be certified by the Department of Environmental Quality; requiring promulgation of rules; providing contents; creating a Septic Tank Installers Advisory Council; providing for appointment and duties; providing for penalties; providing for construction of section; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.