

An Act relating to individuals with developmental disabilities; creating the Families as Partners for Services to Individuals with Developmental Disabilities Act; providing for legislative findings; specifying purpose; requiring the Department of Human Services and other state agencies to promote specific principles; prohibiting certain policies; requiring certain relatives of an individual with developmental disabilities be included in certain decisionmaking; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.