

An Act relating to crimes and punishments; prohibiting use, possession, manufacture and distribution of theft detection shielding devices and theft detection device deactivators or removers; prohibiting removal of theft detection devices; establishing penalty; stating circumstances under which persons may be detained; limiting liability of persons in compliance with certain procedures; defining term; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.