

An Act relating to mental health; stating legislative findings; providing for study by certain agencies; providing for report; continuing certain pilot projects; stating requirements; providing for funding; defining term; providing for noncodification; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.