

An Act relating to public health; requiring the Board of Health to establish a statewide suicide data collection system to track attempted suicides; stating purpose; limiting access to data; requiring maintenance of records; providing for contents; authorizing publication; providing exceptions; requiring confidentiality of information; imposing penalties for violation; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.