

An Act relating to state government; requiring the Department of Central Services to purchase or lease automated external defibrillators; requiring certain qualified and trained personnel; defining term; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.