

An Act relating to prisons and reformatories; authorizing Department of Corrections to enter into contracts with municipalities and counties for the housing of state inmates; setting time limits for contracts; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.