

An Act relating to the State Banking Department; requiring the Department to budget all funds in specified categories and amounts; providing for duties and compensation of employees; providing budgetary limitations; and providing an effective date.