

An Act relating to the district courts; stating certain budget categories; providing duties and compensation of employees; providing budgetary limitations on full-time-equivalent employees and expenditures; providing for certain refunds; authorizing payment of claims when local court funds are insufficient; and providing an effective date.