

An Act relating to the Office of the Attorney General; stating certain budget categories; providing duties and compensation of employees; providing budgetary limitations on full-time-equivalent employees and expenditures; and providing an effective date.