

An Act relating to the District Attorneys Council; stating certain budget categories; authorizing certain transfers; authorizing employment of legal interns; providing duties and compensation of employees; providing budgetary limitations on full-time-equivalent employees and expenditures; making certain employee positions contingent on unappropriated funds; and providing an effective date.