

An Act relating to insurance; mandating access to courts for certain entities; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.