

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; providing for income tax exemption for certain corporations; imposing limitation upon duration of exemption; specifying applicability of exemption based upon certain organization date; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.