

An Act relating to public health and safety; creating the Long-Term Care Reform and Accountability Act of 2001; specifying purpose; establishing a tax credit; creating a Long-Term Care Authority; providing for powers and duties; requiring reports; providing for contents; requiring report of elderly abuse cases; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.