

An Act relating to public finance; defining terms; authorizing certain public entities to enter into performance-based efficiency contracts; providing contract procedures; requiring bond; prescribing conditions for bond; requiring guarantee of cost savings; prescribing procedures related to cost savings; providing for applicability of statutory provisions; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.