

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; authorizing income tax credit for certain qualified costs related to housing development; defining terms; specifying amount of credit; providing for imposition of certain standards; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.