

An Act relating to poor persons; authorizing certain promulgation of rules under certain conditions; providing for extension of coverage for certain recipients for certain length of time; providing for noncodification; and declaring an emergency.