

An Act relating to poor persons; authorizing human services centers or social services centers to employ certain pharmacists to manage and operate a pharmacy at such centers; requiring licensure; providing for compensation; providing certain exemption; providing for bonding; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.