

An Act relating to electric utilities; creating the Energy Security Act of 2002; stating legislative findings; directing the Corporation Commission to use an accelerated depreciation rate for certain investments in determining the fixed rate charge for certain electric utilities; listing types of investments eligible for accelerated depreciation; requiring adjustment of fixed rate charge upon completion of the eligible investment; providing for continued depreciation of eligible investments in certain circumstances; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.