

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; amending 68 O.S. 2001, Section 3607, which relates to ineligibility for payment of certain incentives; providing establishments ineligible to receive incentive payments based upon adjudication of violations of National Labor Relations Act; specifying applicability of provisions regarding violations and effect upon incentive payments; and providing an effective date.