

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; creating certain fund to be administered by the Department of Transportation; authorizing the Department to expend monies for certain counties; requiring the Department to develop an application and certain criteria procedures; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.