

An Act relating to public health and safety; increasing limits for medically needy program; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.