

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; allowing credit against income taxes to certain school teachers for expenditures relating to education that are not reimbursed; limiting credit; providing for credit to be carried forward; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.