

An Act relating to prisons and reformatories; creating Investigations Division within the Department of Corrections; setting duties of Division; authorizing Director of Department of Corrections to employ personnel to carry out duties of Investigations Division; establishing jurisdiction and authority of Division; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.