

An Act relating to public health and safety; requiring a study and submission of recommendations relating to alternative sources of electricity and heating for nursing homes experiencing power outages; specifying date of submission; providing for contents; providing for noncodification; and declaring an emergency.