

An Act relating to criminal procedure; defining terms; prohibiting execution of mentally retarded persons; establishing certain burdens of proof; establishing procedures to be followed; requiring appropriate jury instructions under certain circumstances; establishing post-conviction relief procedure regarding mentally retarded persons sentenced to death; establishing time limits for procedure; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.