

An Act relating to jurors; amending 38 O.S. 2001, Sections 34 and 35, which relate to employers of persons required to serve on juries; prohibiting employers from requiring employees to use leave for jury duty; providing penalties; providing that employer is not required to pay wages for person on jury duty, unless the person takes paid leave; granting employee called for jury duty the option of taking either paid leave or leave without pay; and providing an effective date.