

An Act relating to schools; stating legislative intent to allow certain agreements between higher education institutions and state agencies; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.